

Consensual Amorous Relationships Policy

Summary

The university's policy position on consensual relationships within the workplace.

Purpose

To provide guidance on addressing consensual relationships within the workplace.

Policy

It is the University's position that it is prohibited for members of the faculty and staff, to include graduate assistants, to have romantic relationships with students and employees whom they teach and/or have supervisory responsibilities (even if it appears to be mutual).

Related USG Policy

BOR 8.2.23

Last Update

6/30/18

Responsible Authority

CSU Human Resources